BENEFITS OF BEHAVIORAL FAMILY THERAPY FOR ADDICTION RECOVERY

FAMILY THERAPY

Renaissance Ranch Ogden is committed to bringing your family back together to rediscover the truth and bonds of your family relationships. Our philosophy for addiction recovery involves the family by providing help and support for the entire family. We recognize that connecting families and communities is powerful and eternal, to endure and fully embrace the joy and serenity of this life.

We want you to find true happiness and peace in your new life and heal family relationships.

Family therapy will benefit your family when a member of your family is suffering from drug addiction, alcohol addiction, or prescription drug abuse.

We understand that each family is unique, and each approach to family involvement in recovery is individualized for each family.

There is no additional cost for the Family Program. Renaissance Ranch Program includes:

- Weekly Educational Classes
- Group Therapy
- 12-Step Family Support Program Introduction
- Assessments are Also Available

Benefits of Behavioral Family Therapy for Addiction Recovery

- Family therapy empowers each family member to build structure for positive encouragement instead of enabling your loved ones addictive behaviors.
- Positive support will provide the addict with alternative ways to handle conflict or hardships without turning to drugs or alcohol.
- Half of your family therapy sessions offer the addict the chance to see that your family is there to provide a strong support system.
- By identifying the hardships caused by addiction, your family's strengths and weaknesses will be revealed.

Contact Renaissance Ranch Ogden today and let us help provide shelter for your family against the raging storm of addiction. Call 385-215-7237 today to meet with our trained therapeutic staff and get started on the road to recovery.
